Event Information: Giles County and the ACCE Committee is proud to again bring you the Muddy ACCE Race on Saturday, October 2, 2021. This 5k obstacle mud course is going to be extremely challenging, yet family friendly, and is sure to attract hundreds of people from all over Virginia, West Virginia, North Carolina, etc. We encourage you to be creative in your 'booth' for the vendor village. We have space to showcase you & allow for interactive or interesting demonstrations. Please contact Cora Gnegy if you'd like assistance to develop your concept. We look forward to having you!

Cost: ~10'x10' booth - $100 (although booth spaces can vary in size, etc.- We will work with you on cost, and we remind you that this event solely benefits our high school Access To Community College Education program). It is requested to pay in advance for your space. All sponsors can receive a free booth space- interested in sponsoring the 2021 MAR? Please reach out!
